This commodious shingle & clapboard "English Country" home is gently sited just South of the Historic Norfolk CT Green amongst other architecturally significant estates dotting the lush mountainside neighborhood. Perfect for weekend retreat, gatherings, Airbnb, or a casual B&B. Wildwood House and gardens afford numerous spaces for the en vogue English Country "weekend gatherings" from New York and Boston. With its multiple bedrooms and baths, open and flowing public rooms and massive brick and stone courtyard, this home can accommodate a variety of guests and events. Gather for cocktails and dinner parties, or hide away in a secret nook. The architectural details of Wildwood House pull the eye from one room to another and back again, providing an engaging setting for every weekend dreamer or year round resident. A short walk away is Stanford White's famous fountain on the Green. Across from the fountain you will discover the rare stained glass windows of Battel Chapel, designed and installed by Louis Comfort Tiffany. Beyond the Chapel lies the lush sprawling satellite campus of Yale University's Summer School of Music and Art. The historic village of Norfolk also offers an unparalleled vintage Library, Historical Society, fine dining and shopping. Infinity Music Hall presents performances by noted popular entertainers. Thousands of acres of protected land surround the bucolic village, presenting a beautiful natural environment for hiking, cross country skiing and swimming. Wildwood House is the perfect country home. Web# EH3244
