

Marshall Place

$1,650,000

Address:

1928 Little Creek Road Dillwyn,
23936 Virginia

Bedrooms: 5

Bathrooms: 2

The namesake of this house is Chief Justice John Marshall, who is thought to have used the residence as his hunting lodge. The house is in an idyllic setting surrounded by dogwoods and a white picket fence. Though it retains its 18th-century character, it's in need of some TLC. The acreage includes about 100 acres of pastures with the balance in hardwoods and pine. Both Randolph Creek and Little Creek run through the property.
