The William Bisson House is a historic Victorian home with impressive charm! Thoughtful updates have been completed both indoor & out; while maintaining the home's original character. Features include: a contemporary kitchen, formal living & dining rooms, original grain fir floors, wood-wrapped windows and a wraparound veranda porch. Master offers a separate sitting area and outdoor access to a private deck. The main-level bathroom has a claw-foot tub with a unique, original-style shower system. You'll love the soaring ceilings, period lighting fixtures and ornate details throughout this home. Finished space in the detached garage can be utilized as a workout room, home office and/or bonus room. Don't forget to view the sun room overlooking your beautifully landscaped double lot. This serene 1/3 acres contains an adorable potting shed, gazebo, area for gardening, out building for tools and even a coop for chickens. Don't miss out on this rare opportunity to own an amazing piece of history!
